Dear Peggy,

Our nation was built on a sense of community—that together, we are stronger than we are as individuals. Creating a healthy, hunger-free community requires a partnership that brings together charity, business, and the public and private sector. Without partnerships, food banks could not meet the need for food assistance.

There is simply nothing more extraordinary than when you give a gift of caring. Because of TWOQC's generous donations of $155.00 and 53 pounds of food, a family will pick up groceries from the Green Valley-Sahuarita Community Food Bank today and sit down to a real meal tonight. You bring incredible hope to your neighbors in need.

No one should have to worry about finding enough food for their family. Thank you for helping.

Sincerely,

Mary Jane Goodrick
